Reaching the city center from the airport

From airport, the city center can be reached rapidly by public transport. In the evening, this travel is manageable if you reach the arrival hall before 23:00. Follow these steps:

1. Get Czech money.

You will need Czech Crowns (Kč = CZK, "Koruna" in Czech). The current exchange rate is 1 € = 25.4 Kč. It is recommended to get Koruna by withdrawing money in an ATM. At the airport, the ATM's are located

- on your right after entering the arrival hall, if you are on Terminal 2 (flights from Schengen countries)
- on your left after entering the arrival hall, if you are on Terminal 1 (flights from non-Schengen countries, like Australia, Bulgaria, Ireland, Israel, Romania, Russia, UK, USA).

The other possibility is to get Czech money in an exchange office, but be cautions (p. 5).

2. Buy a ticket for public transport.

You will need a standard ticket, which costs 32 Kč. It can be bought at an information desk of Prague transportation system in the arrival hall (look for a red desk with a logo shown here  $\rightarrow$ ; this office closes at 21:00). A ticket can be bought also from the bus driver. Then it costs 40 Kč; the bus driver usually does not speak English and might not have change. The ticket must be stamped in a machine inside the bus, and it is then valid for 90 min.

3. At the airport, take bus no. 119, and go to its final stop Dejvická.

A map of airport neighborhood with indicated bus stops is on p. 6. Do not forget to stamp the ticket (inside the bus). The travel will take 25 to 35 min, depending on traffic conditions.

4. At Dejvická, change for subway, and go to the station Můstek.

Entrance to the subway is 10 m from the bus stop. The ticket, which was used for the bus, is valid also for the subway (do not stamp it again). Dejvická is the final stop of the subway, so you do not need to think about the direction. Můstek is 4th station, the travel takes about 7 min.

5. You are in the downtown. You should be able to reach your hotel by foot.

The subway station Můstek has two exits, denoted Václavské náměstí (leave the platform in direction of the train, by which you arrived from the airport), and Můstek (opposite direction). You can also change for other subway line (B); a third exit, Jungmannovo náměstí, can be reached from the platform of line B. See p. 7 for a map.

Other ways to go to the city center from the airport

a) Airport Express bus line.

This line is more advantageous than bus 119 only if you wish to reach the railway station. Standard tickets (32 Kč or 40 Kč) are not valid in this bus line.

b) Taxi.

The recommended company is AAA Taxi. This company has an information desk in the arrival hall (look for yellow color). Ask them immediately for a discount card. The price for going to the center is about 560 Kč (22 €). Taxi is reimbursed by COST only if your planes arrives after 22:00, or leaves before 7:00, and has to be proved by your plane ticket.

c) Private shuttles.

Comfortable and fast, but the price (22 to 30 €) is not better than a standard taxi.

d) Transport organized by your hotel.

Recommended hotels propose transport from/to the airport, but this option costs 690 Kč (27 €).

Precautions

Tourists in Prague reported some problems and frauds when changing money in exchange offices.

These problems included

- misleading indications of exchange rates (good rate indicated at a panel, but it is subject to specific conditions, which are announced by tiny letters elsewhere and which are rarely met),
- misleading information about charges (e.g. "no fee" indicated on the office, but this is subject to specific conditions, which are announced by tiny letters),
- reception of other currency (e.g., Belorussian currency instead of Koruna).

The good practice for avoiding most problems is to ask first about the amount of money, which you will receive for the given amount after subtracting all charges. The reasonable "effective" exchange rate is above 23 Kč/€. After receiving Koruna, take time to examine the money you received.

It is recommended to withdraw money from an ATM.

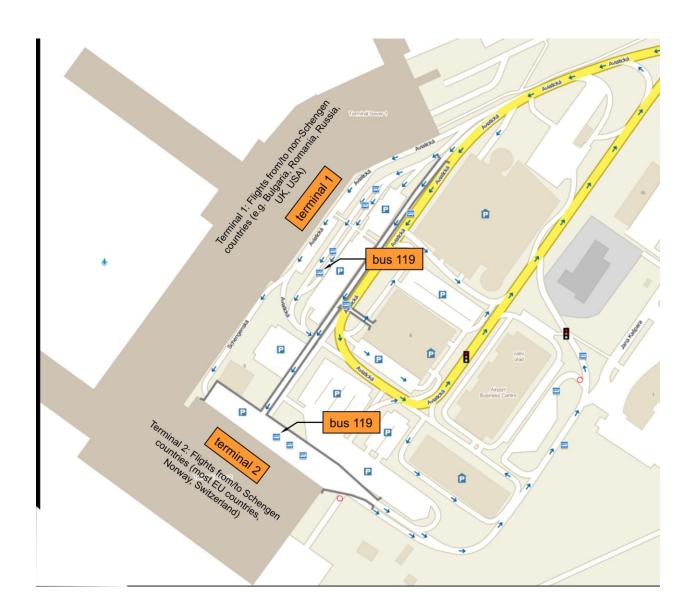

Beware of pick-pocketing, especially in these places:

- in crowd of tourists in front of astronomic clock at the Oldtown Square,
- on the Charles Bridge,
- in tram no. 22, joining historic parts of the city with the Prague Castle.

Prague is quite safe city in general, however.

Airport: Where is the stop of bus no. 119?

Attention: There are four stops of bus no. 119, two at each terminal. One is for people coming from the city to the airport, the other is for people traveling to the city. If the bus behaves strangely, you are at the incorrect bus stop.
